Assignment 1
CS 427
David Greni, Troy Neubauer

1. It needs two network adapters because one is for internal and one for external network communication.
2. We need to remove the installation media because the vm will try to boot into the iso instead of the partitions installed on the drives.
3. We need to give the boot media a higher priority because the bootloader needs to know it has to load the iso first before the drive.